PRAGUE

- Also known as The Golden City
- The historical capital of the Czech Republic, Prague, is known for its beautiful architecture, which includes the Astronomical Clock, Charles Bridge, or Prague Castle.

An aerial photograph of a historic town in the Czech Republic, likely Český Krumlov, captured at sunset. The town is built on a hillside overlooking a river, with numerous traditional European-style buildings featuring red-tiled roofs and white walls. A prominent church with a tall, dark spire stands out in the center. The sky is a mix of warm orange and soft blue, with some light clouds. A stone bridge spans the river in the foreground. The overall scene is peaceful and evokes a sense of historical charm.

HISTORICAL TREASURES

- Many historical landmarks can be found in the Czech Republic, such as the Sedlec Ossuary near Kutná Hora, the town Český Krumlov, and Karlštejn Castle.

NATURAL WONDERS

CZECH CUISINE

Pilsen Urquell – the most iconic Czech beer

A close-up photograph of several Trdelník rolls, which are cylindrical sweet dough rolls, rotating on a dark metal spit. The rolls are covered in a fine layer of brown powder, likely cinnamon, and have a golden-brown, slightly charred exterior. The background is dark and out of focus, showing a person's hand in a white glove and a red sleeve. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the dough and the powder.
