What to see

Teutonic castle

The brick castle was located in the north-western part of the city, from which it was separated by an external defensive wall and a moat powered by a branch of the Drwęca River. Construction of the castle begins 1350-1370.

Lake "Drwęckie"

One of the greatest attractions of Ostróda and the surrounding area is Lake "Drwęckie". Its area is approximately 880 hectares and its depth exceeds 22 meters. Not the entire lake is located in the Ostróda area, but it is on its shore that the city life takes place.

Pier in Ostróda

One of the largest inland piers in Poland is located in Ostróda on Lake Drwęckie. The central point of the pier is an octagonal gazebo with a stage, where live music concerts take place in the summer season. There are also benches, and the whole area is illuminated, so you can visit it during the day and at night. Right next to it there is a popular restaurant serving Czech cuisine and beer.

Promenade in Ostróda

The favorite place for walks among residents and tourists is the promenade at the shore of Lake Drwęckie. You will find the most popular restaurants, cafes and many attractions there. The whole area is very well-kept and well-kept, with lots of lawns and flower beds. There are also benches and even comfortable deckchairs, so it is an ideal place not only for a walk, but also for relaxation.

Elbląg Canal
